

MEMORANDUM

The memo below outlines the current tariff rates faced by U.S. trade partners, as of February 9, 2026.

Tariffs suggested by President Trump; No formal action yet
Country	Suggested Tariff Rate	Additional Information	Effective Date
Canada	100%	On January 24, 2026, President Trump threatened in a Truth Social post to impose a 100% tariff on all Canadian goods entering the U.S. should Canada “make a deal” with China. As a reminder, Canada agreed under the partnership to end its 100% tariff on Chinese electric vehicles, with China agreeing to end or reduce tariffs on canola seed oil, canola meal, and other goods. No further details have been shared. President Trump’s announcement is available here .	TBD

Top 5 Leading Goods Importers into the U.S., through June 2025 <sup>1</sup>
Country	Current Tariff Rate	Additional Information	Effective Date
Mexico	25%  50% on steel, aluminum and copper imports	On July 31, President Trump extended 25% tariffs on Mexico for 90 days (until October 31) as the nations work to finalize a trade agreement.  Mexican President Claudia Sheinbaum noted in the days before October 31 st that the two nations have agreed to a further pause to continue negotiations.	July 31, 2025
Canada	35%  50% on Canadian aircraft	Amendment to Duties to Address the Flow of Illicit Drugs Across Our Northern Border – The White House  In a Truth Social post on January 29, 2026, President Trump said the U.S. would decertify the Bombardier Global Express aircraft, and all other Canadian-made aircraft, until Canada certifies the American-made Gulfstream 500, 600, 700, and 800 jets. It is unclear what legal mechanism the Administration will use to decertify these aircraft. Further, the President threatened to impose a 50% tariff on any Canadian aircraft sold into the U.S. should the situation not be “immediately corrected.” President Trump’s full post is linked here .	August 1, 2025  TBD

<sup>1</sup> www.census.gov/foreign-trade/statistics/highlights/topyr.html

China	Fentanyl-related tariffs: 10% Reciprocal tariffs (for certain goods): 10% 0% on semiconductor imports	U.S. and China announce Trade Deal Modifying Duties Addressing the Synthetic Opioid Supply Chain in the People's Republic of China – The White House As part of the deal, the U.S. will lower fentanyl-related tariffs from 20% to 10% Modifying Reciprocal Tariff Rates Consistent with the Economic and Trade Arrangement Between the United States and the People's Republic of China – The White House The U.S. will suspend heightened reciprocal tariffs for most goods, maintaining a 10% reciprocal tariff rate through November 10, 2026 On December 23, 2025, the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) announced that while a Section 301 investigation determined China has targeted the semiconductor industry for dominance with its nonmarket policies, the initial tariff rate on	Effective with respect to goods entered for consumption, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after 12:01 a.m. on November 10, 2025 November 4, 2025 semiconductor imports will be 0%. The announcement stated the rate will increase to an unspecified rate on June 23, 2027

Germany	Please refer to the European Union in the table below
Japan	15%	Implementing The United States–Japan Agreement – The White House  Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Implements A Historic U.S.-Japan Framework Agreement – The White House	July 23, 2025

Sector Specific Tariffs
Sector	Current Tariff Rate	Additional Information	Effective Date
Agricultural and Food	Removal of certain reciprocal tariffs	Modifying the Scope of the Reciprocal Tariff with Respect to Certain Agricultural Products – The White House  Fact Sheet: Following Trade Deal Announcements, President Donald J. Trump Modifies the Scope of the Reciprocal Tariffs with Respect to Certain Agricultural Products – The White House	November 13, 2025

		The President announced that certain agricultural products will no longer face reciprocal tariffs, including coffee and tea, tropical fruits and juices, cocoa and spices, bananas, oranges, tomatoes, beef, and fertilizers.
Chips and Semiconductors	25% on certain chips	Imports of Semiconductors, Semiconductor Manufacturing Equipment, and Their Derivative Products into the United States Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Takes Action on Certain Advanced Computing Chips to Protect America's Economic and National Security On January 14, 2026, President Trump signed a proclamation directing the Secretary of Commerce and the U.S. Trade Representative to coordinate negotiations to reach international agreements addressing national security threats related to imports of semiconductors, semiconductor manufacturing equipment, and their derivative products. The proclamation also implements a 25% tariff on certain chips, including Nvidia H200 and AMD MI325X chips. The tariff will not apply to chips that are imported to support the domestic buildout of chip manufacturing. It further notes the President may issue broader tariffs in the near future.	January 15, 2026
Copper	50%	Adjusting Imports of Copper into the United States – The White House	August 1, 2025
Steel and Aluminum	50%  25% for U.K. imports	Adjusting Imports of Aluminum and Steel into the United States – The White House	June 4, 2025
Branded/Patented Pharmaceutical Products	100%	In a Truth Social post, President Trump announced that branded or patented pharmaceuticals will face a 100% tariff unless the company/manufacturer is manufacturing in the U.S. or in the process of building a manufacturing facility in the U.S.	October 1, 2025

		https://truthsocial.com/@realDonaldTrump/115267512131958759
Kitchen Cabinets, Bathroom Vanities, and Associated Products	50%	In a Truth Social post, President Trump announced that kitchen cabinets, bathroom vanities, and associated products will face a 50% tariff, citing a “flooding” of such products into the U.S. by other countries. https://truthsocial.com/@realDonaldTrump/115267459188661048	October 1, 2025
Medium- and heavy-duty trucks	25%	In a Truth Social post, President Trump announced that heavy trucks made outside the U.S. will face a 25% tariff. https://truthsocial.com/@realDonaldTrump/115267382531822964	November 1, 2025
Medium- and heavy-duty truck parts;	25%	Adjusting Imports Of Medium- And Heavy-Duty Vehicles, Medium- And Heavy-Duty Vehicle Parts, And Buses Into The United States – The White House On October 17, 2025, President Trump announced an extension of the 25% tariff to truck parts, including key parts (engines, transmissions, tires, etc.). The 10/17 proclamation incentivized domestic medium- and heavy-duty truck production by offering an offset to a portion of tariffs for medium- and heavy-duty truck parts equal to 3.75% of the aggregate value of all trucks assembled in the United States from 2025 through 2030, reflecting the duty that would be owed when a 25% tariff is applied to 15% of the value of a U.S.-assembled medium- and heavy-duty truck.

Buses		It also established a 10% tariff on imports of buses, including school and transit buses Products subject to tariffs under this proclamation will not be subject to additional or existing sectoral tariffs on steel, aluminum, copper, automobiles and automobile parts, and lumber; they also will not be subject to reciprocal tariffs or the tariffs imposed on Canada, Mexico, Brazil, or India.
Timber, lumber, and derivative products	10% on softwood lumber 25% on certain upholstered furniture (increases to 30% on January 1, 2027)	President Trump signed a Proclamation imposing Section 232 tariffs on imports of timber, lumber, and their derivative products to support American industry and protect national security. The Section 232 tariff on subject wood imports from the United Kingdom will not exceed 10% and the combined Section 232 tariff and most-favored nation tariff on subject wood imports from the European Union and Japan will not exceed 15%. Adjusting Imports of Timber, Lumber, and their Derivative Products into the United States – The White House Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Addresses the Threat to National Security from Imports of Timber, Lumber, and Their Derivative Products – The White House Amendments to Adjusting Imports of Timber, Lumber, and their Derivative Products into the United States – The White House	October 14, 2025 (with increases for certain tariffs on January 1, 2027)

	25% on kitchen cabinets and vanities (increases to 50% on January 1, 2027)	Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Adjusts Imports of Timber, Lumber, and Their Derivative Products into the United States – The White House  The tariff increases were originally scheduled to come into effect on January 1, 2026; However, on December 31, 2025, President Trump issued a proclamation delaying the tariff increases a full year.
Movies	100%	In a Truth Social post, President Trump shared he will be imposing a 100% tariff on movies that are made outside of the U.S. The President did not provide any timing or details on how this tariff would be implemented.  https://truthsocial.com/@realDonaldTrump/115287691323395767	TBD

Other Notable Tariffs
Sector	Current Tariff Rate	Additional Information	Effective Date
Any country doing business with Iran	25%	Addressing Threats to the United States by the Government of Iran – The White House  On February 6, 2026, President Trump signed an Executive Order to enact an additional ad valorem rate of duty on goods imported into the U.S. from countries that "directly or indirectly purchases, imports, or otherwise acquires any goods or services from Iran."	February 7, 2026
Countries involved in the direct and indirect sale of oil to Cuba	TBD	Addressing Threats to the United States by the Government of Cuba – The White House  On January 29, 2026, President Trump issued an Executive Order (EO) last night announcing a tariff framework to address national security concerns posed by Cuba. Effective 1/30/26, an additional ad valorem rate of duty “may be imposed” on imports into the U.S. that are products of countries involved in the direct and indirect sale of oil to Cuba. The Secretary of Commerce and Secretary of State are tasked with identifying these countries and providing recommendations to the President on what additional ad valorem rate of duty should be imposed for each country. President Trump’s EO is linked here . A White House Fact Sheet is available here .	January 30, 2026
United Kingdom	10%	Fact Sheet: U.S.-UK Reach Historic Trade Deal – The White House	May 8, 2025

	15% on U.K. automobiles 25% on steel and aluminum imports Exemptions include:	Products for civil aircraft will be exempted from tariffs applied under other Trump administration executive actions. This measure applies largely to Rolls-Royce jet engines and parts often used in U.S.-made aircraft. Technology Prosperity Deal:  Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of The United States of America and the Government of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland Regarding the Technology Prosperity Deal – The White House The Technology Prosperity Deal is a collaborative effort between the U.K. and U.S. to advance technology disciplines, including artificial intelligence (AI), civil nuclear, fusion, and quantum technologies. The Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) establishes a joint flagship research program between U.S. and U.K. science agencies to advance the development of models and datasets in shared priority areas, including AI for biotechnology and medicine. Additionally, the MOU calls for increased coordination on non-proliferation and nuclear security programs to maximize certainty for both U.S. and U.K. markets.	Exemptions effective June 30, 2025 Please see MOU for varying timelines
--	--	---	---

		Furthermore, the memorandum establishes a U.S.–UK task force to accelerate breakthroughs in benchmarking across quantum computing hardware, software, and algorithms. According to the MOU, the U.S. and U.K. intend to establish and convene a “Ministerial-Level Working Group” within six months.
European Union	15%  50% on steel, aluminum and copper imports  27.5% on automobiles  Exemptions include:	Joint Statement on a United States-European Union Framework on an Agreement on Reciprocal, Fair, and Balanced Trade – The White House  Fact Sheet: The United States and European Union Reach Massive Trade Deal – The White House  EU-US trade deal explained - energy aspects (EU Commission)  European Commission President von der Leyen stated that “we have also agreed on zero-for-zero tariffs on a number of strategic products. This includes all aircraft and component parts, certain chemicals, certain generics, semiconductor equipment, certain agricultural products, natural resources and critical raw materials.”	August 7, 2025
Brazil	50% (total rate)	Addressing Threats to The United States by the Government of Brazil – The White House A 40% tariff is added to an existing 10% duty on Brazilian goods.	August 6, 2025

	Certain food/agricultural products are exempted from the additional 40% tariff	Modifying the Scope of Tariffs on the Government of Brazil – The White House  On November 20, 2025, the Administration announced it was removing an additional 40% tariff on Brazilian food products, including coffee, tea, beef, tropical fruit, and more.	The modifications shall be effective with respect to goods entered for consumption, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after 12:01 a.m. eastern standard time on November 13, 2025
South Korea	25%	In a post to Truth Social on January 26, 2026, President Trump said he would be raising tariffs on South Korean autos, lumber, pharmaceuticals, and all other reciprocal tariffs, from 15% to 25%. In the post, President Trump criticized the South Korean legislature for having delayed the approval of a previously agreed-upon trade framework, detailed in a White House Fact Sheet ( linked here ) released in November. President Trump did not say when the tariff increase would come into effect.	TBD
Taiwan	15% (with exemptions)	Fact Sheet: Restoring American Semiconductor Manufacturing Leadership Through an Agreement on Trade &amp; Investment with Taiwan  On January 15, 2026, the Administration announced this afternoon that the U.S. and Taiwan have reached a trade deal that includes $250 billion in investment into the production of semiconductors, and an additional $250 billion in credit	January 15, 2026

		guarantees to support the semiconductor supply chain in the U.S. As part of the agreement, the U.S. will cap reciprocal tariff rates applied to Taiwanese goods at 15%. Further, generic pharmaceuticals and their ingredients, aircraft components, and certain natural resources will not face a reciprocal tariff.
Vietnam	20%		August 7, 2025

Tariff Rates prescribed by July 31, 2025, Executive Order titled “ Further Modifying the Reciprocal Tariff Rates ,” Annex 1 Countries (Effective August 7, 2025), and amended (for certain items) by “ Modifying the Scope of Reciprocal Tariffs and Establishing Procedures for Implementing Trade and Security Agreements ,” September 5, 2025.
Country	Current Tariff Rate	Additional Information	Effective Date
Afghanistan	15%		August 7, 2025
Algeria	30%		August 7, 2025
Angola	15%		August 7, 2025
Argentina	Varying, dependent on product	Ambassador Greer Signs the United States–Argentina Agreement on Reciprocal Trade and Investment   United States Trade Representative  Following the announcement of a trade deal framework with Argentina in November, the Administration signed a formal agreement on February 5, 2026, finalizing the agreement. Under	Must be approved by Argentina’s National Congress

		the agreement, Argentina will eliminate tariffs on over 200 U.S. goods, including chemicals, pharmaceuticals, machinery, and many other products. The updated tariff schedule also indicates the removal of an additional 10% tariff on Argentine beef imports, however, Argentine beef will still face a 9% base tariff rate. The U.S. also agreed to remove reciprocal tariffs on 1,675 Argentine products, including "certain unavailable natural resources" and ingredients for pharmaceutical goods originating in Argentina. Further, Argentina will open its market to U.S. auto and auto parts that meet U.S. motor vehicle safety and emissions standards.
Bangladesh	19%	Joint Statement on United States - Bangladesh Agreement on Reciprocal Trade – The White House On February 9, 2026, the White House released a joint statement with the government of Bangladesh announcing an Agreement on Reciprocal Trade. While a full, final agreement has not yet been disclosed by the White House, the joint statement explained that Bangladesh will provide significant preferential market access for U.S. industrial and agricultural goods. In response, the U.S. will reduce its reciprocal tariff rate on Bangladeshi goods from 20% to 19%. Further, the U.S. will commit to establishing a mechanism to allow for “certain textile and apparel goods from Bangladesh to receive a zero reciprocal tariff rate.” More information on the deal is available in the joint statement, linked here.	TBD
Bolivia	15%		August 7, 2025
Bosnia and Herzegovina	30%		August 7, 2025
Botswana	15%		August 7, 2025
Brazil	10%		August 6, 2025

Brunei	25%		August 7, 2025
Cambodia	19%	Agreement Between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Cambodia on Reciprocal Trade – The White House On 10/26, the U.S. and Cambodia announced a trade deal. Key terms of the deal include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cambodia commits to eliminating tariffs on 100 percent of U.S. industrial goods and U.S. food and agricultural products exported to Cambodia and has already implemented this commitment.</li> <li>• The United States commits to maintain at 19 percent the reciprocal tariffs, as set forth in Executive Order 14257 of April 2, 2025, as amended, on originating goods of Cambodia, and identifies products from the list set out in Annex III to Executive Order 14346 of September 5, 2025, Potential Tariff Adjustments for Aligned Partners, to receive a zero percent reciprocal tariff rate.</li> </ul>	October 26, 2025
Cameroon	15%		August 7, 2025
Chad	15%		August 7, 2025
Costa Rica	15%		August 7, 2025
Côte d`Ivoire	15%		August 7, 2025
Democratic Republic of the Congo	15%		August 7, 2025
Ecuador	15%		TBD

	TBD:	Joint Statement on Framework for United States-Ecuador Agreement on Reciprocal Trade – The White House  In a trade deal framework, Ecuador will remove or decrease tariffs on U.S. machinery, chemicals, and agricultural products. Ecuador will work to address non-tariff trade barriers, including by reforming its import licensing and facility registration systems for food and agricultural products. The U.S. will commit to removing its reciprocal tariffs on “certain qualifying” Ecuadorian exports. Further details will follow as the two nations work to finalize a formal deal. The White House notes that “Given Ecuador’s commitments to take significant steps to advance a more reciprocal trade relationship, the United States will remove its reciprocal tariffs on certain qualifying exports from Ecuador to the United States.” No specific details have been shared on exports will see tariffs removed.
El Salvador	TBD	Joint Statement on Framework for United States-El Salvador Agreement on Reciprocal Trade – The White House  El Salvador will streamline regulatory requirements for U.S. goods, including pharmaceuticals, remove import restrictions on remanufactured goods, and accept U.S. auto standards. El Salvador will also remove barriers to the entrance of U.S. agricultural goods to its market. The country will commit to advancing certain intellectual property treaties and preventing barriers to services and digital trade.	TBD

		The U.S. will commit to removing its reciprocal tariffs on certain Salvadoran exports that cannot be produced in the U.S. No further details have been provided regarding which tariffs will be removed.
Equatorial Guinea	15%		August 7, 2025
European Union	15%  50% on steel, aluminum and copper imports  Exemptions include:	Fact Sheet: The United States and European Union Reach Massive Trade Deal – The White House  EU-US trade deal explained - energy aspects (EU Commission)  European Commission President von der Leyen stated that “we have also agreed on zero-for-zero tariffs on a number of strategic products. This includes all aircraft and component parts, certain chemicals, certain generics, semiconductor equipment, certain agricultural products, natural resources and critical raw materials.”	August 7, 2025
Falkland Islands	10%		August 7, 2025
Fiji	15%		August 7, 2025
Ghana	15%		August 7, 2025
Guatemala	TBD	Joint Statement on Framework for United States-Guatemala Agreement on Reciprocal Trade – The White House  Guatemala will address certain non-tariff barriers, including by streamlining U.S. export approval requirements for pharmaceutical products and by removing restrictions on remanufactured goods. Further, Guatemala will accept U.S. auto standards, commit to addressing barriers to U.S. agricultural products, protect	TBD

		internationally recognized labor rights, and more effectively enforce its environmental laws. The U.S. will commit to removing its reciprocal tariffs on certain Guatemalan exports that cannot be produced in the U.S. No further information regarding the removal of certain tariffs has been shared.
Guyana	15%		August 7, 2025
Iceland	15%		August 7, 2025
India	18%	Modifying Duties to Address Threats to the United States by the Government of the Russian Federation – The White House In an Executive Order signed by President Trump on February 6, 2026, removed an ad valorem duty rate of 25% on Indian goods previously imposed due to India’s direct and indirect importing of Russian oil. United States-India Joint Statement – The White House In a joint statement with India, President Trump announced a framework for an Interim Trade Agreement that would impose an 18% duty on Indian goods. India in term will reduce or eliminate tariffs on a variety of U.S. industry and agricultural products.	No timeline given in joint statement
Indonesia	19%	Fact Sheet: The United States and Indonesia Reach Historic Trade Deal – The White House	August 7, 2025
Iraq	35%		August 7, 2025
Israel	15%		August 7, 2025

Japan	15%	Fact Sheet: President Donald J. Trump Secures Unprecedented U.S.-Japan Strategic Trade and Investment Agreement – The White House	August 7, 2025
Jordan	15%		August 7, 2025
Kazakhstan	25%		August 7, 2025
Laos	40%		August 7, 2025
Lesotho	15%		August 7, 2025
Libya	30%		August 7, 2025
Liechtenstein	15%	In a trade deal framework released on November 14, 2025, the White House announced it will impose a maximum cumulative reciprocal tariff of 15% on Liechtenstein. Liechtenstein companies have announced investment into U.S. industries. Liechtenstein will also remove tariffs across agricultural and industrial sectors, including tariffs on fresh and dried nuts, fish and seafood, certain fruits, chemicals, and spirits such as whiskey and rum. The U.S., Liechtenstein, and Switzerland also committed to a framework of digital trade principles	August 7, 2025
Madagascar	15%		August 7, 2025
Malawi	15%		August 7, 2025
Malaysia	19%	Agreement Between the United States of America and Malaysia on Reciprocal Trade – The White House On 10/26, the White House announced a trade deal with Malaysia. Key terms of the deal include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Malaysia has committed to provide significant preferential market access for U.S. industrial goods exports, including chemicals, machinery and electrical equipment, metals,</li> </ul>	October 26, 2025

		and passenger vehicles, and for U.S. agricultural exports including dairy, horticultural products, poultry, processed products, beverages, pork, rice, and fuel ethanol. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The United States has committed to maintain at 19 percent the reciprocal tariffs first set forth in Executive Order 14257 of April 2, 2025, as amended, on originating goods of Malaysia, and has identified products from the list set out in Annex III to Executive Order 14346 of September 5, 2025, Potential Tariff Adjustments for Aligned Partners, to receive a zero percent reciprocal tariff rate.</li> </ul> Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Malaysia Concerning Cooperation to Diversify Global Critical Minerals Supply Chains and Promote Investments – The White House The U.S. and Malaysia also signed a Memorandum of Understanding to strengthen cooperation between the countries on critical minerals supply chains development and expansion and to promote trade and investment between the countries in critical mineral resource exploration, extraction, processing and refining, manufacturing, and recycling and recovery.
Mauritius	15%		August 7, 2025
Moldova	25%		August 7, 2025
Mozambique	15%		August 7, 2025
Myanmar	40%		August 7, 2025
Namibia	15%		August 7, 2025

Nauru	15%		August 7, 2025
New Zealand	15%		August 7, 2025
Nicaragua	18%		August 7, 2025
Nigeria	15%		August 7, 2025
North Macedonia	15%		August 7, 2025
Norway	15%		August 7, 2025
Pakistan	19%		August 7, 2025
Papua New Guinea	15%		August 7, 2025
Philippines	19%		August 7, 2025
Serbia	35%		August 7, 2025
South Africa	30%		August 7, 2025
South Korea	15%	A trade deal with South Korea was announced by President Trump on July 30 in a post to Truth Social. https://truthsocial.com/@realDonaldTrump/114944494894008041	August 7, 2025
Sri Lanka	20%		August 7, 2025
Switzerland	15% (cumulative reciprocal rate)	Fact Sheet: The United States, Switzerland, and Liechtenstein Reach a Historic Trade Deal – The White House In a trade deal framework released on November 14, 2025, the White House announced it impose a maximum cumulative reciprocal tariff of 15% on Switzerland. Switzerland has committed to balancing its trade with the U.S., and several Swiss companies have announced investment into U.S. industries. Switzerland will also remove tariffs across agricultural and industrial sectors, including tariffs on fresh and dried nuts, fish and seafood, certain fruits, chemicals, and spirits such as whiskey	TBD

		and rum. In addition, Switzerland will establish tariff rate quotas for American poultry, beef, and bison. The U.S., Liechtenstein, and Switzerland also committed to a framework of digital trade principles.
Syria	41%		August 7, 2025
Taiwan	20%		August 7, 2025
Thailand	19%	Joint Statement on a Framework for a United States-Thailand Agreement on Reciprocal Trade – The White House On 10/26, the White House announced a trade deal with Thailand. Key details of the deal include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thailand will eliminate tariff barriers on approximately 99 percent of goods, covering a full range of U.S. industrial and food and agricultural products.</li> <li>The United States will maintain at 19 percent the reciprocal tariffs, as set forth in Executive Order 14257 of April 2, 2025, as amended, on originating goods of Thailand, and will identify products from the list set out in Annex III to Executive Order 14346 of September 5, 2025, Potential Tariff Adjustments for Aligned Partners, to receive a zero percent reciprocal tariff rate.</li> </ul> Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Kingdom of	October 26, 2025

		Thailand Concerning Cooperation to Diversify Global Critical Minerals Supply Chains and Promote Investments – The White House  The U.S. and Thailand also signed a Memorandum of Understanding seeking to cooperate in strengthening critical minerals resource sector governance, promoting partnerships between U.S. and Thai companies, and promoting trade and investment between the Participants to expand Thailand’s integration into secure and reliable global supply chains.
Trinidad and Tobago	15%		August 7, 2025
Tunisia	25%		August 7, 2025
Turkey	15%		August 7, 2025
Uganda	15%		August 7, 2025
United Kingdom	10%  15% on U.K. automobiles  25% on steel and aluminum imports  Exemptions include:	Fact Sheet: U.S.-UK Reach Historic Trade Deal – The White House  Products for civil aircraft will be exempted from tariffs applied under other Trump administration executive actions. This measure applies largely to Rolls-Royce jet engines and parts often used in U.S.-made aircraft.	May 8, 2025        Exemptions effective June 30, 2025
Vanuatu	15%		August 7, 2025

Venezuela	15%		August 7, 2025
Vietnam	20%	Joint Statement on United States-Vietnam Framework for an Agreement on Reciprocal, Fair, and Balanced Trade – The White House On 10/26, the U.S. and Vietnam announced a framework for a proposed trade deal. Key details of the deal include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vietnam will provide preferential market access for substantially all U.S. industrial and agricultural exports to Vietnam.</li> <li>• The United States will maintain at 20 percent the reciprocal tariffs, as set forth in Executive Order 14257 of April 2, 2025, as amended, on originating goods of Vietnam, and will also identify products from the list set out in Annex III to Executive Order 14346 of September 5, 2025, Potential Tariff Adjustments for Aligned Partners, to receive a zero percent reciprocal tariff rate.</li> </ul>	Final agreement to be finalized “in the coming weeks”
Zambia	15%		August 7, 2025
Zimbabwe	15%		August 7, 2025
In the Executive Order referenced at the top, President Trump declared that for “goods of any foreign trading partner that is not listed in Annex I to this order will be subject to an additional ad valorem rate of duty of 10 percent pursuant to the terms of Executive Order 14257, as amended, unless otherwise expressly provided.”			